

GROWERS BRING LIVESTOCK HERE

Carloads Arriving at Local Yards For Exhibition at Ogden Show.

Carload after carload of the west's best livestock is arriving at the Ogden Union Stock Yards for the second annual Ogden Livestock Show which opens Thursday morning. Cattle, sheep, hogs and horses are included in the large number of animals that have already reached Ogden. Railroad companies have notified the show management of other shipments coming from all parts of Utah, Idaho, Wyoming, Montana and Nevada and have indicated that all of these carloads will be in the yards by Wednesday evening.

JUDGING THURSDAY.
Judging for the livestock show will be started on Thursday morning. As rapidly as possible, premiums for the different classifications will be announced, so that every visitor will be able to see just which animals the experts decided were worthy of the top places in the list. As a result of this early judging it is expected that there will be hundreds of visitors to the livestock show on the opening day.

The amusement events of the show will start on Thursday evening when the stockmen's ball will be given at the Bohemian. This will be followed on Friday by the big athletic carnival including two wrestling matches, at the Alhambra theatre. The closing entertainment feature will be on Saturday evening, the livestockmen's banquet, held at the Weber club rooms, at which all exhibitors and herders will be guests of the show management. There will be other attractions in Ogden during the three days so that the visitors are assured of a great variety of amusements and entertainments.

INTEREST CENTER ON SHOW.
However, the belief is that during the day time their interest will be centered in the livestock show itself. There will be the finest exhibits of dairy cattle, fat cattle, full blooded cattle, sheep and swine that have ever been secured for any western show. They will include the prize winners from the northwestern and Pacific coast shows and those animals, both herds and flocks, that are expected to take prizes at the Denver show, which follows the one in Ogden.

Opening of the Sherry Flour company mill, which is scheduled for Thursday, Friday and Saturday, will also be of interest to the livestock men visiting Ogden. Invitations have been extended to all exhibitors, as well as the public at large, to attend the event.

EPISCOPAL GUILD.
Members of the Episcopal Guild will meet Wednesday afternoon in the Guild Hall at 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. L. M. Mead and Mrs. Ella Mitchell as hostesses.

Baker of Mendon, William Atwood and Irene Atwood of Murray, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Baker and baby Agnes of Salt Lake and Miss Anna Cowen of Buffalo, New York.

RETURN TO SCHOOL.
Lowell and Virginia Baker have returned to Salt Lake where they will resume their studies at the University of Utah. The two spent their holidays with their parents, Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Baker.
